President's Message

The holidays are over, and the decorations taken down, waiting for next year to burst forth adding color to the grey skies of winter. To the members attending the 2019 Winter Conference and AHR Expo in Atlanta: Enjoy three days of technical programs and professional development seminars provided by ASHRAE. The AHR Expo, the world's largest HVACR event, is the premier showcase of the latest technology in our industry. Have a safe trip and a good time.

The theme for the upcoming meeting is Research Promotion. I will update the membership on where we stand so far. We are honored to have for our speaker Julian R. deBullet, an ASHRAE Distinguished Lecturer, who will give a presentation on Condenser Water Heat Recovery at the Hilton Garden Inn in Wilkes-Barre.

All the best and take care.

Eric Turner
